

No. 51 Allows Cities to Raise More Money

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third in a series of four articles on constitutional amendments and inflated acts to be voted on in the Nov. 8 general election.

By JOHN R. STARR
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Backers of proposed constitutional Amendment 51 contend the future of Arkansas cities hangs on its passage.

Opponents counter that it opens the door to limitless taxing and spending by cities, a practice already monopolized by state and federal governments.

Star to Give Its Views on Ballot

At the end of publication of the series of articles explaining the proposed amendments and acts which will appear on the general election ballot, November 8, of which this is one article, The Star will make an editorial analysis of the various items and offer a suggested marked ballot for whatever it is worth to the newspaper's readers.

The measure, one of three proposed amendments to be voted on in the Nov. 8 general election, liberalizes taxing powers of cities, whose revenues are strictly limited by present constitutional provisions.

The proposal may never reach the ballot, however. The ballot has been attacked before the Arkansas Supreme Court as misleading because it is in conflict with the text of the measure.

A Supreme Court ruling that the title is misleading would strike the proposal from the ballot.

The title, rewritten at the suggestion of Gov. Orval E. Faubus, apparently sets limits of five mills each on taxes levied for general purposes and for civic improvements.

The paragraph covering this subject in the text seems to remove the taxing limit.

Faubus has urged passage of Amendment 51.

The limits seemingly set in the title correspond with those presently in force under Amendment 13.

The title also stipulates that voters approval is required for any tax increase. No mention of voters is made in the text.

Both the title and the text remove a constitutional limit of $5,000 on the salaries of municipal officials. In this, the amendment is in conflict with proposed Amendment 50, which would change the limit from $5,000 to $10,000.

The Arkansas Municipal League is working hard for passage of the amendment. Passage of such a measure has been a long-time goal of the league.

Proponents contend the measure would result in a tax increase only in those cities where voters want increased services. They say cities are hamstrung now because they have no taxing leeway.

The only alternative to adoption of this amendment, city leaders say, is an increase in the state tax on municipalities which would necessitate an increase in state taxes.

The amendment leaves undisturbed the cities' right to levy taxes of one mill for libraries and one mill each for policemen's and firemen's pensions.

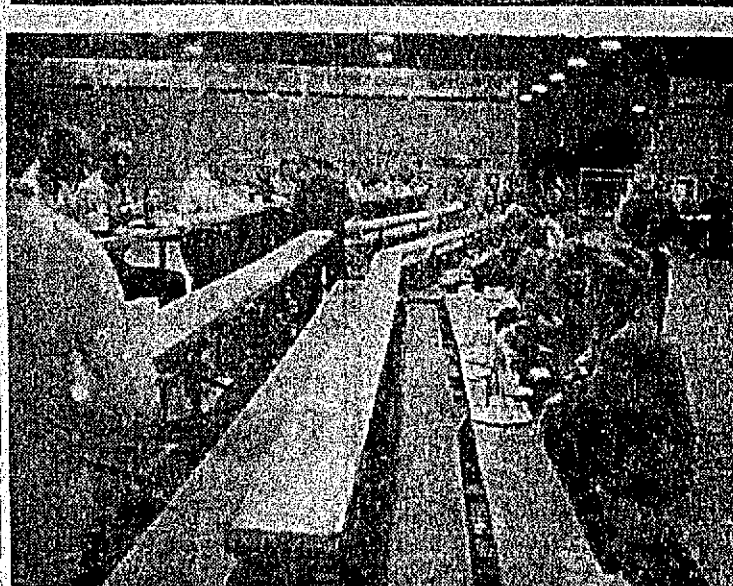

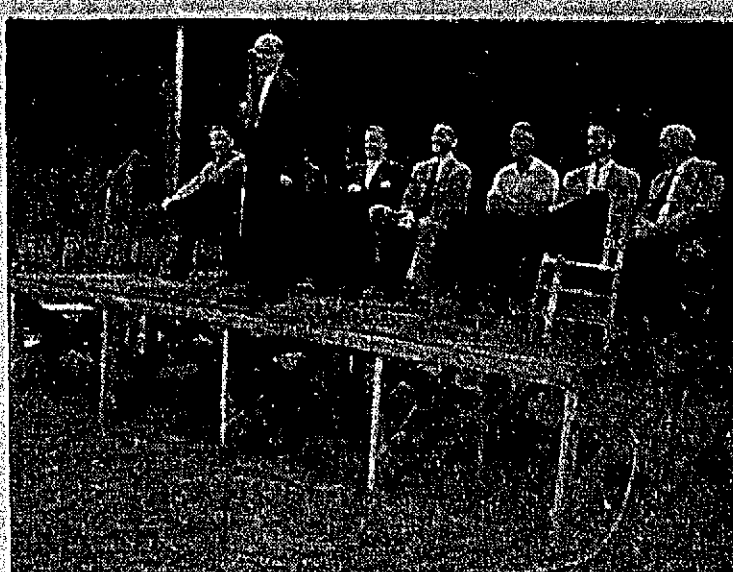

Check and balance duties are imposed by the amendment on all city governments which could set tax limits if it chooses.

Most city governments, either individually or through the Municipal League, have endorsed the amendment. There is no organized opposition, other than the Supreme Court suit filed on a legal technicality.

Says Nixon 'Deceiving' U. S. Voters

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., Wednesday accused Vice President Richard M. Nixon of "efforts to raise a suspicion that Mr. Kennedy is soft on communism."

He made the assertion at a news conference he called to protest that Nixon "is now deliberately trying to deceive the American people on the eve of the election."

Fulbright chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said he agrees with statements by Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee that the Eisenhower Administration tried to persuade the Nationalist Chinese to reduce their forces on the Quemoy and Matsu islands just off the Red China coast.

He continued that he didn't believe the question of defense of Quemoy and Matsu was "suitable for a political campaign." He said this is "essentially a matter of military tactics" but that Nixon has continued to bring up the issue.

Fulbright said he is convinced that Nixon's purpose was an effort to raise a suspicion that Mr. Kennedy is soft on communism.

President to Virginia for Address

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower left the National Airport today for a sentimental journey to Staunton, Va.

The President took off under cold cloudy skies.

He arrived at the terminal by helicopter from the White House.

His trip will include visits to the birthplaces of his mother and of Woodrow Wilson.

Wilson was born at Staunton in 1856 and President Eisenhower's mother at nearby Mount Sydney in 1862.

The occasion for the presidential visit is a ceremony arranged by the Woodrow Wilson Birthplace Foundation.

Eisenhower will make a speech at Mary Baldwin College, where Wilson also spoke as president-elect in 1912.

The man who introduces the President will be Sen. Harry F. Byrd, a Democratic power in the state who has declined to come out for Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic nominee for president.

Other Virginians who are supporting Kennedy plan to be on hand in a greeting capacity.

Nixon Brings Up Kennedy Stand on Cuba

By JACK BELL

WITH NIXON in Michigan (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon coupled a new blast at Sen. John F. Kennedy's Cuba policies today with a promise that, if elected, he will invite immediate negotiations with the Soviet Union on a nuclear testing ban.

Nixon promised that he would send his running mate, vice-presidential candidate Henry Cabot Lodge, to Geneva for negotiations on a nuclear ban.

While stopping through politically doubtful Michigan, the Republican presidential nominee blasted anew at his Democratic rival in saying there is confusion "now starkly revealed" in Kennedy's camp over what to do about Prime Minister Fidel Castro of Cuba.

In a statement, Nixon said that Adlai E. Stevenson, one of Kennedy's foreign policy advisers, had denounced the Eisenhower administration's imposition of restrictions on trade with Cuba because he contended this would drive Castro further toward the Communist camp.

Nixon contrasted this with a proposal of Kennedy for U. S. government support of anti-Castro elements in and out of Cuba.

"The senator would have the United States take rash action that would play into the hands of the Communists and cause us to lose all of our friends in Latin America," Nixon said.

"His adviser, on the other hand, fails to understand the need for any positive action to quarantine the Castro virus," Sen. Kennedy and his principal foreign policy advisers are so diametrically opposed in their views on foreign policy as Sen. Kennedy and his personally selected running mate are on civil rights.

"They not only are wrong but they are completely wrong in opposite directions."

On the nuclear issue Nixon said that if the Soviets should agree to a fool proof inspection under which military tests would be banned, he would be willing to meet in a summit conference to make the agreement final.

He said he meant a summit conference with Soviet Premier Khrushchev and Prime Minister Harold MacMillan of Great Britain.

Nixon said Wednesday night the Soviets have set off several underground blasts in the two years since this country stopped nuclear tests.

Citizens Group Favors No. 52

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Capitol Citizens Council today put its formal endorsement on proposed constitutional Amendment 52 and indicated it feels Gov. Orval E. Faubus will come out in favor of the measure in a television speech Friday night.

Faubus announced Wednesday that he will state his stand on the proposal Friday night. He sponsored measure through the 1959 Legislature but he so far has refused to urge its adoption by voters in the Nov. 8 general election.

A Citizens Council news release under the signature of President Malcolm G. Taylor, called Faubus' announcement "highly gratifying."

Miami Alert for Cuban Activities

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—City Manager M. L. Reese has placed Miami policemen on a six-day week because of what he called an emergency created by Cuban revolutionary activity here.

Twenty thousand Cubans, many of them refugees from the Fidel Castro regime, live in Miami and there have been frequent quarrels between their factions.

Reese said he has information indicating "semi-military" activities by Cuban refugees are increasing.

Navy Lets Contract for New Missile

BALTIMORE (AP)—A $26.8 million contract for the development of a new triple-threat missile was awarded Wednesday to the applied physics laboratory of Johns Hopkins University by the Navy.

The missile will be designed to bring down enemy missiles, destroy enemy warships or bombard hostile shores, a Navy spokesman said. The new program is part of a search for faster reacting and longer range defense missiles.

State Police Pay Raises Proposed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Pay raises for state troopers have been approved by the Arkansas Legislative Council but that body balked at increases for 16 employees of the Workmen's Compensation Commission.

The Council Wednesday approved a State Plant Board calling for a $25 a month raise for troopers with another $25 in uniform allowance.

But it voted 14-6 against a recommendation of Gov. Orval E. Faubus for boosts for the Compensation Commission employees, including the three appointed commissioners.

The Council also approved without argument a State Plant Board budget request including $142,000 a year for the pest control division.

This had been expected to produce a fight since the Plant Board's pink bollworm control program has aroused criticism from some legislators and cotton farmers.

Asylum Escapee Threatens Queen

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—A man sidled up to a sentry outside Stockholm's Royal Palace, took his loaded submachine gun and made off through the dark and winding streets of the Swedish capital.

An hour later the thief walked into the office of the "Stockholms-Tidningen" newspaper, waved the gun and said calmly: "I want to kill Princess Sibylla."

The princess is the mother of Sweden's 14-year-old crown prince Carl Gustaf.

The newspaper's crime reporter Bo Sigheiden, disarmed the 47-year-old man and called the police.

Police said he had escaped from an insane asylum.

Screenon Is Winner in Vote Contest

LONOKE, Ark. (AP)—The name of state Sen. Jerry J. Screenon will appear on the Nov. 8 general election ballot in the 19th Senatorial District.

Circuit Judge W. J. Waggoner Wednesday dismissed on a technicality a suit filed by J. T. Gunter of Austin contesting the Aug. 9 Democratic primary election in the district. Screenon was the victor on the basis of certified returns from the district's four counties.

Gunter said he felt it his duty to "fight these things to the ultimate conclusion," which would mean a Supreme Court appeal.

But he said he wanted to consult further with his attorneys before saying definitely that he would appeal.

Attorneys for Gunter said that should the Supreme Court overrule Judge Waggoner, the senatorial post would be declared vacant and a new election called to fill it.

Waggoner said he dismissed the suit because Gunter's lawyers had failed to include the vote totals for the uncontested precincts in Lonoke County and so he had no figures on which to decide the winner.

Gunter filed the suit challenging votes in Prairie County. Screenon's home. Screenon responded by challenging votes in Gunter's home Lonoke County. Hearing of the suit consumed more than three weeks.

Alumni Magazine Picks Editor

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Andrew J. Lucas Jr. 31 of Little Rock was named today as editor of the University of Arkansas alumni magazine, the "Arkansas Alumnus."

Lucas succeeds Mrs. Roba Wilcox, who resigned last August.

Plant Production Now Limited

YELLEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The new Mac-Bax Shirt Co. has gone into limited production.

Two employees are working in a temporary cutting department at Gassville and a half dozen others are working in a temporary sewing department at Yellville.

Employment in the temporary quarters will be expanded.

Officials of the company apparently anticipate approval of a bond issue to finance construction of a permanent plant at Gassville. The bond proposal will be voted on by residents of Baxter and Marion Counties on Nov. 15.

6-Man Junta in Power in San Salvador

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP)—A six-man military-civilian junta held power today in this Central American republic after a swift and bloodless coup.

Strangely President Jose Maria Lemus, 49, had vanished. There were reports the soldier-president was seeking refuge in neighboring Guatemala or the United States.

Clerks at the Billmore Hotel in Guatemala City said a reservation had been booked for Lemus and "we are still waiting for him." Guatemalan officials said they had no official knowledge of the fleeing president.

The little coffee-growing country had been seeking for months with demands for social and economic change. The great majority of the 2½ million people are impoverished peasants dominated by a small number of wealthy, plantation-owning families. The army traditionally controls politics.

The coup came after two months of student-led demonstrations. Lemus said the demonstrations were the work of Communists and retaliated with a police crackdown in which about 300 persons were jailed.

The government proclaimed a state of siege—a modified form of martial law—on Sept. 5. The Salvador University faculty accused the police of brutality and for a time went on strike.

Thousands gathered outside as the new Cabinet was sworn in Wednesday night at the presidential palace. The junta of three army officers and three civilians pledged to abide by the constitution, guarantee the rights of citizens and hold free elections in 1962, when Lemus' term was due to expire.

Dr. Rene Fortin Magana, one of the civilian members of the junta, charged Lemus used communism as a political weapon to crush all opposition.

"His lies harmed the cause of liberty throughout the hemisphere," Fortin said.

The coup was carried out swiftly after members of the 1st Artillery Regiment in the capital fired a half dozen rounds at the presidential palace.

Lemus, a lieutenant colonel in the army, was elected without opposition in 1956. He paid a visit to the United States in March 1959. He was given a ticker-tape parade up New York's Broadway and met with President Eisenhower in Washington.

Batesville to Vote on Bonds

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Batesville residents will vote Nov. 29 on a proposed $1.75 million bond issue which would finance construction of a plant for Configured Products Co.

Size of the proposed plant would depend on negotiations between White-Rodgers Co. of St. Louis parent firm of Configured Products, and an unidentified large company.

This will be the second large industrial bond issue to be voted on here this year. A $1.3 million issue to finance construction of a new Seiberling Rubber Co. plant was approved last spring. Ground for that plant was broken Tuesday.

McClellan to Talk at Fund Raising

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Sen. John McClellan, D-Ark., will speak at a "ham and eggs" fund-raising breakfast sponsored by the Arkansas Democratic party here Nov. 3.

National Committeeman Pat McHaffey said Wednesday the breakfast would offer "Arkansas ham and eggs and a fellowship hour with our own distinguished senior senator."

He obviously was contrasting this with a recent $50-a-plate "party for Two Parties" which had a Republican air.

Kennedy Says U. S. in 3rd Recession

By EDMOND LEBRETON

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy said today the country apparently is entering "a third recession in six years. And I say we can't afford another recession."

"The Democratic candidate campaigning for the second straight day in areas where the labor vote is strong, has been accusing Vice President Richard M. Nixon of 'getting increasingly disconnected from reality.'"

As Kennedy took his campaign back to New York he challenged his opponent to talk about bread-and-butter issues. He said the objections Republicans always raise against Democratic programs "America can't afford it."

Kennedy flew here early today after campaigning in and around Detroit.

U. S. in New Appeal for Solution

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States today made a new appeal to the Soviet Union to abandon its all-or-nothing disarmament demands, and seek agreement now on limited measures to build world confidence and prevent war by miscalculation.

The appeal was made by U.S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth in the General Assembly's 19-nation Political Committee in an effort to head off a threatened Soviet boycott he said would delay further discussions for months.

"There are things that can be done now," Wadsworth said, "and we should do them."

He called for renewed talks in the East-West Arms Committee at the earliest possible time on measures to ban military weapons from outer space, prohibit missile carriers and other steps toward disarmament which may be controlled.

Manhunt for Arkansan in Texas

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—A vast manhunt spread today over this north Texas area for an ex-convict from Arkansas, believed holding a housewife and her two-year-old daughter.

The ex-convict is wanted also for questioning in a slaying at Texarkana, Tex., and in a rape and attempted murder in this area.

Sheriff John Young of Parker County advised all residents of Alamo, Tex., and surrounding areas to keep their homes locked until Jones is caught.

Young listed the man sought as Curtis Lee Jones, 38.

Feared kidnapper are Mrs. Walter Sears, wife of a schoolteacher, and the couple's daughter, Cynthia Sue.

The hunt flared today after a man and woman were kidnapped twice at gunpoint, officers said.

The woman raped, they said. The body of Doyle Jackson, 52, a former convict, was found in the woods near Texarkana last weekend.

He had been shot three times and strangled with a leather belt.

Farthing Abandoned

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II has written off the farthing.

A royal proclamation withdrew the tiny coin from circulation after 600 years as the least valuable currency of the sterling area. After Dec. 31 the farthing—worth a quarter of an English penny—will be worthless.

Son Wants to Save Someone

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Edward Ashby is 80, stone deaf and extremely independent. He also is a dangerous driver, says his son Wayne, 54.

"Take his license, Judge. I want to save his life or someone else's," the son pleaded in traffic court Tuesday.

The father was charged with reckless driving. Police said he attempted a U-turn in heavy traffic.

Wayne Ashby said state officials refused to revoke his father's license without affidavits.

"My father will obey the law; he won't drive if he doesn't have a license, but as long as he has one he will," the son said.

Judge Ralph Stone continued the case to Nov. 29.

Times Comes Out for Sen. Kennedy

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times today editorially endorsed Sen. John F. Kennedy for president.

The newspaper, which is politically independent, endorsed President Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956.

The Times said two considerations carried special weight in determining its judgment. In endorsing the Democratic nominee—"a matter of foreign policy" and "a question of assuring a unified direction of the nation's affairs at a difficult moment in history."

The editorial said: "Sen. Kennedy made it clear he would not go to war with Communist China solely for the principle of defending two islands immediately adjacent to the Chinese mainland, for to do so would be 'unsound military, unnecessary to our security and unsupported by our allies.'"

"But the vice president, who in a sense had to be rescued from his original position by the President, made statements—such as the one that he would not surrender one inch of free territory—to the Communists—that carry implications reaching far beyond Quemoy and Matsu and, in fact, extending to the whole range of American foreign policy."

State Hospital Costs Going Up

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The executive director of the Arkansas Hospital Association said today that cost of hospital care in the state is going to increase.

And, Graham T. Nixon added, adoption of a minimum wage proposal might cause an increase of as much as 30 per cent in hospital labor costs with a large portion of this reflected in the patient's bill.

Nixon made his comments in an interview.

Later today he was scheduled to speak to a meeting of the Arkansas Chapter of American Association of Hospital Accountants.

A labor-sponsored minimum wage measure will be on the Nov. 8 general election ballot.

DOROTHY DIX Teacher Asks Dating Advice For His Teenage Daughters

BY HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

Several problems have arisen in raising our teenage daughters. I am a teacher. We live in an average, highbrowed and we have an average income. The most recent argument arose over our 18-year-old daughter's dating. We are not worried that she lacks good moral judgment, but we would like to know whether dating for a drive-in movie and the time she comes home would damage her reputation.

We would also like to know what is considered an average allowance for teenagers. This year we plan to give our youngest daughter, sophomore in high school, $1.50 per week plus $5 per month clothing allowance. She occasionally earns extra money babysitting. Next year we plan to raise the allowance to $16.50.

We realize these problems are small but the arguments are detrimental to my wife's health. Troubled Father.

Dear Troubled Father: A teacher's job is difficult enough without being complicated by harassing problems such as these. A girl of 17 has attained maturity. Some states give 18-year-olds the vote. If your eldest daughter is old enough to vote, she is old enough to be her own boss.

However, so long as she looks to you for support, she is obligated to respect your wishes. Note that I said "respect," not "obey." If you want her to be a person in her own right, scrap rules. Present both sides of the picture. Any single girl under 20 who solo dates at a drive-in movie is flouting the gossip. For the same reason the prudent girl sees that her date brings her home before midnight unless it be a dance. In view of a teacher's like home pay, I think the $1.50 allowance for your youngest daughter is adequate. But I doubt if $5 a month is sufficient to buy her clothes. Does she make her own clothes? If not, see that she takes a course in dressmaking. It will be an investment.

You and your wife might submit suggestions for compromises. My former husband, the late John Erskine, who was a great educator as well as wise parent, often remarked that parents who order their children to do this or that, immediately disqualify themselves as parents. To quote him: "Parenthood, like love and marriage, is a companionship in which nature and art should collaborate but sometimes fail to do so."

lifelong companionship between generations involves successive surrenders of authority by the parents and the assumption of more and more responsibility by the children.

Dear Helen: I am going on 17 and in love with a guy 23. We were seeing each other until my father stopped him from coming to the house. Dad didn't like him because he was Mexican. One day I cleaned house for this boy's mother while she was in the hospital. I asked him if he would take me to the last school dance that night. He couldn't, he said, because he had to go somewhere with a boy friend. Later that evening I went to the park. There he was with another girl. He tried to hide her in his car. I had a fight with the girl next day. That made me madder than I was. All at once I had the phone in my hand and was telling this boy a boss (telling him his dad had an accident). It was just like a dream. My boy friend could have killed me. Now I wish he had. I wanted to hurt him like he hurt me. My folks made me stay in the house two weeks. I cried all those two weeks. I told the boy 43 times I was sorry. Still he hates me. You'll say what everybody says: I don't deserve a second chance. I've been punished, believe me.

I tried to kill myself but my mother caught me in time. If I have another chance to kill myself I will. My parents and neighbors won't let me forget. Now can I make them keep from yelling about it? Sorryful.

Dear Sorryful: Be ashamed of yourself for making like a thwarted child when you should be making the most of the life God has given you. Just because you can't have the boy you want is an inglorious reason for committing suicide. No wonder your family and neighbors act like a Greek chorus.

Flabbing about your boy friend's Dad was certainly wrong, but not as heinous as they and he would have you think. Stop brooding. That's a selfish luxury which none can afford, and the last way to revive dead love. Nor will your telephoning that boy rekindle the flame. Play it cool. Be a girl worth wanting.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful letters available. Write for "Teenage Code."

Mobutu Bows to Order of the UN

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Col. Joseph Mobutu bowed to the United Nations today and withdrew the bulk of his disorderly army from Leopoldville's African quarter.

The shaky army chief made a few face-saving gestures to cover his retreat, but U.N. officials expressed confidence that relative order and security would return. In the confused tangle of a stalemate involving Mobutu's army, the police loyal to deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba and the U.N. force, the United Nations was clearly on top.

Mobutu's unruly and violent soldiers kept the civilian population terrorized for four days.

Rajeshwar Dayal, chief of the U.N. Congo mission, bluntly ordered Mobutu to remove his men from face strong U.N. action.

Mobutu left only a few isolated patrols on duty. He also set up a detachment in front of the central post office in the European city where they could be seen by the largest number of people.

Japs Start Trials

TOKYO (AP)—A Japanese court today began trying the first group of persons charged as a result of the violent demonstrations against the U.S. Japan security treaty.

Nine leaders of the extreme-left Zengakuren student federation made up the first group. They were charged with trespassing last November with a mob that broke into the grounds of the Parliament (Diet) building. The maximum penalty for the charge is three years in prison.

Two Slated to Die in Electric Chair

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two Negroes are scheduled to die in the state's electric chair at dawn Friday, but Gov. Orval E. Faubus has been asked to commute the sentence of one of them.

Liege, Belgium, became a center of firearms manufacture in the 15th Century.

matter of FACT

Cat and dog fights have nothing on the way our ancestors defended themselves. In old Anglo-French law, a man committed a "mayhem" when he deprived his opponent of an arm, leg, or any "member" proper to his defense in fight. Men fought in a way that might seem unorthodox today, for front teeth were considered necessary for self-defense. If you knocked out someone's front tooth, you could be charged with "mayhem." Back teeth didn't qualify.

Negro Preacher Out on Bond

DECATUR, Ga. (AP) — Negro integration leader Martin Luther King Jr. today was ordered freed from the state penitentiary under bond of $20,000 pending an appeal from a traffic violation sentence.

The bond was set by Judge Oscar Mitchell, who earlier had sent King to prison for four months on the ground that his participation in Atlanta lunch counter sit-ins violated probation on the traffic count.

Mitchell granted attorneys for King an appeal from his revocation of part of a suspended sentence given the integration leader for failure to have a Georgia driver's license.

Judd, keynote speaker at the Republican national convention this summer, said that Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential candidate, is best qualified for the presidency because of his experience.

Pine Bluff and Fort Smith, two teams tied for second place in the Big Nine Conference race, are favored to win vital conference games this week. Meanwhile Little Rock Central, the conference leader, will go into a non-conference game with Memphis Central favored by three touchdowns.

Fort Smith is a one-touchdown selection over Little Rock Central in the third round for second place in the Big Nine. Pine Bluff is a two-touchdown favorite over North Little Rock, which has lost four of six games.

El Dorado and Hot Springs are favored in two lower bracket games. El Dorado over Texarkana and Hot Springs over Blytheville.

Region 2AA has two important games carded — Forrest City vs Stuttgart and Wynne vs Helena. Both have lost one league game and Stuttgart is unbeaten in four games having upset Helena last week 6-0.

Here is the week's outlook: Fort Smith 20, Little Rock 13. Hall is the best upset candidate in the state this week but Bill Stancil's Grizzlies are a good back-to-the-wall football team.

Pine Bluff 19, North Little Rock 6. Pine Bluff seems to be getting stronger and is possibly the most serious threat to Central.

Hot Springs 13, Blytheville 0. Unless someone comes up with a batch of football players for the sunken tacks.

El Dorado 33, Texarkana 6. Wildcats bounce back from four losses to good teams.

Little Rock Central 21, Memphis Central 0. Tigers unbeaten and mighty anxious to stay that way. Not really a breather, though.

Fayetteville 7, Springfield Hillcrest 0. A tossup.

Harrison 13, Siloam Springs 6. Harrison ready after being slapped around by Rogers.

Rogers 27, Springdale 0. Like trying to stop a bull with a b-b gun.

Little Rock Catholic 14, Subiaco 13. A guess and a point for the home field advantage.

Conway 21, Van Buren 7. Warmus Cats unstoppable by so-so Pointers. Seven straight for Conway.

Stuttgart 26, Forrest City 12. Forrest City will put up a good fight.

Helena 7, Wynne 0. A good one between two teams that can stay on the edge of the 2AA race by winning.

Jonesboro 13, Morrilton 7. The Hurricane was impressive in its 47-0 victory over Blytheville.

Paragould 25, Pocahontas 13. Paragould easily the strongest.

West Memphis 20, Munford Tenn. 14. Arkansans overcome the trip to Tennessee.

Benton 20, Jacksonville 0. Benton won't be stopped at least until it hits Conway, Nov. 11.

Malvern 23, Russellville 7. More and bigger marbles.

Camden 14, Hope 12. A loss of the extra points.

Crossett 13, Smackover 0. Crossett should come back from a loss to Camden.

Yerger Loses to Idabel There 16-14

By PAT CARR

The Washington High Wildcats of Idabel, Okla. came from behind in the last two minutes of play to down the Yerger Tigers 16-14 in a game played at Idabel last night.

The first score came when the Wildcats in possession on the Tiger 31, Frankie Davis moved to the three and Henderson to the one. The Wildcats fumbled and Jerry Johnson recovered at the one-half yard line for the Tigers. On a third down situation still recovered a blocked punt in the Yerger end zone for a two-point play.

The Tigers got on the board with 65 seconds remaining in the first half when FB Cox scored from the 28 yard line. The PAT failed and the half ended with Yerger ahead 6-2.

Idabel scored late in the third quarter when QB Henderson hit Guiley with a 36 yard pass. The PAT failed.

Then two minutes of thrilling football shaped up. The Tigers started the situation as Yerger QB Earl Edwards hit Duffie from the Midfield stripe for the Tiger second TD. Yerger converted safely with one and a half minutes left. QB Henderson used the same pass pattern almost from the same point as he found his target in Guiley from the 46. The Wildcats, under pressure made the conversion which decided the ball game, a 15-13 victory for the hosts. Standouts on defense for Yerger were Edwards, Duffie, Criner, Newton and Turner.

NCAA Slaps Penalties on Kansas

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—An automobile purchased by boosters for Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain three years ago plagued the University of Kansas today as the NCAA slapped penalties against its basketball and football teams.

In a two-pronged action, the Jayhawkers were hit in the Chamberlain car case of May 1957, and for illegally recruiting football players from Southwest Conference schools more recently.

Under terms of a two-year probation, the basketball team cannot participate in the National Collegiate championships or any of the invitational tournaments cooperating with the NCAA.

The football team, this year one of the best in the school's history, goes under probation for one year. It shall not be eligible during that period, effective immediately, to participate in any post-season contests, including bowl games, or be in television programs subject to NCAA jurisdiction.

The action against Kansas football followed complaints heard in the Southwest. Although the NCAA did not name the three graders involved, halfback Bert Coan failed to report at Texas Christian University last year and enrolled instead at Kansas.

Guard Mickey Walker and end Jim Street both quit Texas A&M to go to Kansas. Rodger McFarland left A&M for Kansas while still a freshman.

NCAA rules stipulate transfers cannot be made without notification of the athletic directors involved.

The NCAA didn't use Chamberlain's name in its report, but A. C. Lonborg, director of athletics at Kansas, confirmed the identity.

Three schools came off probation as the NCAA council concluded its session here—Wyoming, Mississippi and North Carolina State. The first two were handed one-year penalties in 1959 and are restored to full rights and privileges.

North Carolina State finishes a four-year probation status on Nov. 13.

Teachers Back Is Top Gainer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Ted McConahaghey, gaining at a 5.8 yard per carry clip, is the leading in both rushing and total offense in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference.

Statistics released Wednesday by AIC Commissioner Cliff Shaw showed that the Arkansas State Teachers halfback had gained 379 yards on 65 carries, good for first place in both categories.

Second in rushing is Henry Brummelt of Arkansas Tech with 289 yards on 78 attempts. Second in total offense is Bobby Hyatt, of Arkansas A&M with 333 yards. Hyatt leads passers with 277 yards on 26 completions.

Henderson's Freddy Glaze is the leading scorer with 32 points, followed by Tech's George Clark with 30 points.

Bill Shepherd of Tech has caught 11 passes for 164 yards to top pass receivers.

Kicker That Beat Porks Is Honored

UNIVERSITY, Miss. (AP) — To paraphrase an honored adage, if you don't make the grade the first time, just keep on plugging. And the successful application of this bit of advice earned Mississippi center Allen Green lineman of the week honors.

Green booted a 39 yard field goal on the game's final play against Arkansas last Saturday night to give the Rebels their 10-7 victory. And for this bit of heroics, The Associated Press accorded him laurels to the Mississippi pivotman.

Actually, Green succeeded the first time, contrary to the maxim, but the trouble was, it didn't count.

The game's officials had called time out and with three seconds left, Green kicked the winning points. And that ended the issue.

Well, almost ended it. Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles complained bitterly the kick was no good. Broyles lost the argument.

"The kick was good, no doubt about that," Mississippi Coach Johnny Vaughn said in an interview when told Green was the nation's top lineman this week.

"This was typical of Green, who has been a good, steady player for us."

Vaughn said Green was a good example of what practice could do for a player. The kick against Arkansas was Green's first in competition and was the result of unrelenting practice.

Mississippians Seek Hog Tickets

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — There's a bright side to Arkansas' 10-7 loss to Mississippi last Saturday, reports Allen Berry, manager of Little Rock's War Memorial Stadium.

Speaking to a civic club here Wednesday, Berry said that the game, played in Little Rock, had aroused some outside interest in Arkansas. Mississippi won on a controversial last-second field goal.

Since the Ole Miss game, Berry noted, "I have even received about 25 telephone calls from that state wanting to know if tickets are available for the Arkansas-Rice game Nov. 5."

Says Revolt Crushed

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — President Rómulo Betancourt claimed Tuesday night that after six days of riots, his armed forces have crushed revolutionists trying to impose "Cuban methods" in Venezuela.

Army patrols were ordered into the streets of Caracas Tuesday after demonstrators massed in downtown areas and cheered the

Porks Slated for Extra Workout

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks faced an unusual full-scale workout today, their last day of practice before leaving to meet Texas A&M Saturday at College Station, Tex.

Coach Frank Broyles, who normally has only preview work on Thursday, slated a full practice today, with emphasis on the passing game. "We still have a long way to go," he said, noting that Tuesday's workout was limited by rain.

The Hogs drilled hard on both running and passing games Wednesday.

Injured end Leslie Letsinger, examined earlier in the week for a possible kidney injury, worked out in sweat clothes Wednesday.

End Steve Butler is considered doubtful for Saturday's game and fullback Joe Paul Alberty is definitely out. Guard Charlie Moore, hurt in the second game of the season, may be back in action this week, though.

Texas Pilot Dies in Crash in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A Texas pilot was killed Wednesday night when his single-engine plane crashed as he was preparing to land at the municipal airport here.

The victim was tentatively identified as McCall Fitzpatrick, an engineer for Clear Span Engineering Co. of Houston, Tex. The body was found in the wreckage of the plane where it smashed to earth near a haxile strip mine about two miles south of the airport.

The Federal Aviation Authority said Fitzpatrick, originally bound for Stuttgart, had called to control tower at Adams Field here and amended his flight plan for a landing at Little Rock. A few minutes later a pilot called the control tower for landing instructions, saying he had only 15 minutes fuel remaining.

Louis W. Stepler, FAA supervisory air traffic control specialist, said the pilot did not sound upset and did not declare an emergency. Stepler said the plane had entered the landing traffic pattern when it suddenly disappeared from the tower's radar screen and radio contact was lost.

The wrecked $25,000 plane was found about five hours later. Searchers were hampered by heavy fog, dense underbrush and the frequency of strip mine pits in the area.

Stepler said the plane crashed near the top of a mine pit and nearly slid into the water.

The FAA said there was a 200-foot overcast, with fog and visibility of a mile and a half at the time of the crash.

Fitzpatrick had left Sugar Land, Tex., 25 miles west of Houston, about three hours before he first contacted the Little Rock tower. He had been headed for Stuttgart, where his company is assisting in construction of a pipeline bridge over the White River for Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co.

$50,000 Hoedown Tossed by Actors

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — John Wayne tossed a $50,000 Texas hoedown Wednesday night for the local premiere of the film "The Alamo."

A big-name turnout, including the former Queen of Iran, ate enchiladas and chili and consumed gallons of Texas corn whiskey. Society maestro Bernie Richards and his orchestra had guests dancing past 3 a.m.

Wayne paid $50 each for admission of the 1,000 guests and turned over most of the $50,000 proceeds to Share, Inc., a charitable group that helps mentally retarded children.

About the only big Hollywood name missing at the party was Wayne himself, star and director of the $12-million movie about the heroic defense of a San Antonio fort besieged by Mexicans under Santa Anna in 1836. He was en route to England for the London premiere tonight.

Lee Mode Is Convicted a 2nd Time

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP)—For the second time Lee Mode has been convicted of second degree murder and sentenced to 21 years in prison in the slaying of a young girl named described by prosecutors.

Mode remained free on bond pending a possible appeal.

A jury which found him guilty of second degree murder last year also set a 21-year prison term but the Arkansas Supreme Court reversed this decision on grounds of improper instructions to the jury and ordered a new trial.

Mode was tried the first time on a first degree murder charge.

Mode did not testify in his second trial. In the first trial he took the stand to say that he shot Russell, a one-time farm tenant of his, in self-defense.

Much of the testimony was a repeat of the earlier trial, but the prosecution presented two Sallisaw Okla. women who testified as his love rival.

A jury deliberated less than two hours Wednesday before finding the 66-year-old former Conway contractor guilty in the fatal shooting of Delbert Russell, 37, on a Conway street in 1958.

Cuba Charge to Be Aired Before UN

By TO MHOGUE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Fidel Castro's charge that the United States is preparing an invasion of Cuba appeared destined today for debate after long delay in the U. N. Political Committee instead of immediate discussion in the General Assembly.

Demanding urgent consideration for the invasion charge, Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa also accused the United States Tuesday of planning a "manufactured provocation" at the U. S. naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba, to influence the U. S. presidential election.

Despite Soviet backing for Roa, the assembly steering committee voted 123 with 5 abstentions to send the complaint to the 99-nation political committee, where the United States said it rightfully belonged.

The political committee already is bogged down with a heavy work schedule, and the Cuban charges appeared fated to wind up near the bottom of its agenda.

Cuba had served notice that it was steering committee rejected her demand for immediate assembly debate on the complaint; it would try to get the assembly to overturn the committee recommendation. Diplomats gave the Cubans little chance of success.

The United States branded the Cuban charges a "monstrous fabrication" and warned the steering group against being stampeded into "hasty action." It made clear, however, that it welcomed a full U. N. airing of Cuba's charges.

The Cuban foreign minister accused Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon of trying to make Cuba the scapegoat of the election campaign. In an emotional outburst, he declared the Cuban government had

Parents at Detroit Protest Integration

DETROIT (AP) — The parents of children at three predominantly white Detroit schools voted Tuesday night to keep their youngsters home to protest the transfer of 312 Negro children to the schools.

About 2,000 parents met and voted to keep their children home Friday and next Monday and Tuesday from the Guest Monnier and Noble schools. The Guest and Noble schools are all white. The Noble has a few Negro students.

They protested the transfer of the Negro children from the Brady and McKerron schools to the schools attended by their children. The Board of Education said the Negroes were being transferred because of overcrowding at the two schools.

abundant proof, a large-scale attack on Cuban territory "is about to break out."

New Flavor For Pumpkin Pie

Desserts are like hats. We're always wanting a new one... or at least a new furrow or flower for the old one.

Now there's nothing wrong with plain, old-fashioned pumpkin pie. But for a change and a flavor "lift," this California version is sure to have some happy followers.

West coast cooks like to use freshly squeezed (or frozen) orange juice as a goodly part of the liquid in their pumpkin pies. Gives that elusive, "what-is-it" flavor... very nice, indeed.

For weight-watchers, the recipe will have an additional attraction: Considerably more than one-third of the normal caloric count has been slashed away, simply by replacing the sugar normally required with the calorie-free sweetener, Sucaryl. Try this new fashion in pies on dieters and non-dieters alike. It's sure to win you compliments.

California Pumpkin Pie (Low-Calorie)

- 2 eggs, beaten
- 2 tablespoons Sucaryl
- 1/2 cup evaporated milk
- 1/2 cup canned pumpkin
- 1/2 cup evaporated milk
- 1/2 cup orange juice
- 1 9-inch unbaked pastry shell

Combine eggs, Sucaryl, spices and pumpkin, blending well. Add milk and orange juice gradually, stirring until well blended. Pour into the unbaked pastry shell. Bake in a hot oven (450° F.) 10 minutes; reduce heat to moderate (350° F.) and bake 40 to 50 minutes longer, or until a knife inserted near the center comes out clean.

Makes 6 servings. Each serving contains 211 Calories; 6.5 grams protein; 10.5 grams fat; 23 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 330 Calories.

Plant Board Asks More for Program

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Plant Board asked the Arkansas Legislative Council today to approve a yearly budget of $431,000 for the next biennium.

The agency also asked a $12,000 appropriation for its pest control division.

Robert W. Anderson, chief inspector for the board, told the council that the agency wants to step up its pest control program during the next two years.

He said it wanted to establish three quarantined stations in addition to the one now operating near Texarkana.

The council is holding its biennial round of pre-Legislature budget hearings. For the first time this year, it is considering an executive budget submitted by Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Previously, state agencies submitted their budgets individually. The hearings will last about six weeks.

Approved by the group Tuesday were budgets for the state penitentiary and four minor agencies.

All the budgets sought an increase in funds.

Approval of the budget for the state Forestry Commission was held up after some council members argued that it should include pay increases for foresters and other field personnel.

It contains raises for some of the staff members.

Faubus Asked for Stand on No. 52

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Four women pickets paraded in front of the State Capitol Tuesday afternoon, bearing signs asking Gov. Orval E. Faubus to take a public stand on controversial proposed Amendment 52.

"Gov. Faubus, are you fence-straddling?" asked one sign.

Another said the women were worried by Faubus' silence on the proposed school-closing measure to be on the Nov. 8 ballot.

Another sign said, "Four times we helped you, please help us on 52."

The women would not say what their position on the amendment was. They ignored questions from newsmen.

Faubus, who backed the proposal in the 1959 legislature but since has declined to say whether he still favors it, missed the demonstration.

He was in Batesville.

Another Version of Great Debate

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP) — Paragould staged its own version of a great debate Tuesday night. The issue was city manager government and it was argued before an overflow crowd of 300 at the town hall.

Paragould will vote on the city manager government Nov. 8.

Taking the side of mayor-council government, such as Paragould now has, were J. Doyle Yopp, a former county official, and State Rep. Tony McDonald.

Speaking for city manager government were Bob Bland, a former alderman; Fred Wulfekuhler, a newspaper editor; and Ted Rand, a radio station executive.

Each side made an opening statement and then answered questions from the floor. The meeting lasted about 2 1/2 hours.

Alexander Hamilton founded Paterson, N.J., in 1791 as a planned industrial city.

Blankenship Murder Trial Continues

MARION, Ark. (AP) — Having added an oral "confession" to the record, the state continued today to build a case that could lead to a death sentence for a teenage Memphis father.

Jerry Lynn Blankenship, 18, is charged with murder and assault with intent to rape in the death of 14-year-old Carol Arlene Feathers last Feb. 20.

The confession Blankenship allegedly made was permitted as testimony Tuesday only after a 2 1/2-hour closed-door session of lawyers and Judge Charles Light of Crillenden Circuit Court.

Lt. Thomas H. Smith of the Memphis police department said the youth admitted killing the Feathers girl because she "leashed him pretty heavy and denied him permission to have sexual intercourse with her."

Smith testified Blankenship made the admission after an officer noticed "debris" on his shoe soles similar to the soil at the trash dump where the girl's body was found.

After that, he said, Blankenship "hung his head and looked from one to the other a time or two and then said he had killed Carol Arlene Feathers."

Lawyers for Blankenship have indicated they will deny the alleged confession. "The defense is going to prove that this boy didn't have anything to do with this," said Ben McCourney, a Jonesboro lawyer.

The "confession" testimony was the highlight of a day that included statements from a friend of the Feathers girl and Dr. Glen F. Baker of the University of Arkansas Medical Center in Little Rock.

Ann Doyle 18, of Memphis, said she was with a group at a west Memphis night club. She said Carol joined the table, refused to leave with her date and said she "was going home with Jerry."

Baker testified death was almost immediate from a blow which knocked a hole in the skull.

Gas Co. Files for Higher Rates

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas Gas Transmission Corp., Owensboro, Ky., has filed a proposed $4,742,200, or 4.4 per cent, annual wholesale natural gas rate increase with the Power Commission.

The higher rates would affect about 70 utility customers in Illinois, Arkansas, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Ohio and Tennessee.

The company wants to make them effective Dec. 6.

Texas gas based the new filing on general increases in costs. It also is claiming a 64 per cent rate of return compared to the 6 1/2 per cent allowed in a recent rate case settlement.

Electoral Votes by Each State

WASHINGTON (AP) — The number of electoral votes at stake in this year's election is 537, an all-time high. To win, a candidate must pick up a majority of them, or 269.

In 1956 the total number of electoral votes was 531. The increase of six since then came about because Alaska and Hawaii were admitted to the Union.

Each state has as many electors as the total number of its U. S. senators and representatives.

Here is a breakdown by states of the 1960 electoral votes:

- Alabama 11; Alaska 3; Arizona 4; Arkansas 8; California 32; Colorado 6; Connecticut 8; Delaware 3; Florida 10; Georgia 12; Hawaii 3; Idaho 4; Illinois 27; Indiana 13; Iowa 6; Kansas 6; Kentucky 10; Louisiana 10; Maine 5; Maryland 10; Massachusetts 16; Michigan 20; Minnesota 13; Mississippi 8; Missouri 13; Montana 4; Nebraska 6; Nevada 3; New Hampshire 4; New Jersey 16; New Mexico 4; New York 45; North Carolina 14; North Dakota 4; Ohio 25; Oklahoma 8; Oregon 6; Pennsylvania 22; Rhode Island 4; South Carolina 8; South Dakota 4; Tennessee 11; Texas 24; Utah 4; Vermont 3; Virginia 12; Washington 9; West Virginia 6; Wisconsin 12; Wyoming 3.

Who Says It's Spinach?

FROM EUROPE COMES THIS IDEA for a main dish vegetable pie. The vegetable is chopped spinach (use the labor-saving quick-frozen kind) combined with an egg-custard mixture and baked in a tangy cheese crust. Serve it with a fruit salad for a truly different lunch or supper menu.

FLORENTINE CUSTARD PIE

- 1 package (10 ounces) Birds Eye Chopped Spinach
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/2 cup light cream
- 1/2 cup finely chopped onions
- 1/4 cup chopped mushrooms
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- dash of pepper
- 3 eggs, slightly beaten

Cook spinach as directed on the package. Drain well. Meanwhile, combine the milk, light cream, chopped onions, chopped mushrooms, salt, nutmeg, and pepper in a saucepan. Simmer one minute. Add a small amount of the hot mixture to the eggs. Blend well. Add to remaining hot mixture in saucepan and stir.

Add spinach to hot custard and mix well. Pour into 9-inch unbaked Cheese Crust. Bake in a hot oven (400° F.) 15 minutes; then reduce heat to 325° F. and bake an additional 20 to 25 minutes, until a silver knife inserted in the center of the pie comes out clean. Makes 6 servings.

Cheese Crust: Combine 1 cup grated Cheddar cheese, 1/2 cup flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/4 cup melted butter, until well mixed, using pastry blender or fork. Press firmly on bottom and sides of 9-inch pie pan.

Nixon Shoots for Votes Across Ohio

BY JACK BELL

WITH NIXON IN OHIO (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon pounded away at the theme today that he is equipped to deal with Soviet Premier Khrushchev and his opponent is to "inconsistent" to do so.

The Republican presidential nominee campaigned across Ohio in search of electoral votes that might help him make up for the possible loss of New York in the Nov. 8 balloting.

Striking at his Democratic rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy, Nixon told a train-side crowd in the rain at the steel town of Middletown, Ohio, that his opponent jumps from position to position on international affairs.

Police estimated the crowd at 10,000, which seemed far in excess of the actual turnout. But local newsmen said it was larger than the crowd which previously assembled to hear Kennedy.

In contrast to his rival, Nixon pictured himself as an experienced negotiator who knows how to deal with Khrushchev.

"You have seen the television pictures of Mr. Khrushchev shaking his fist at me," Nixon declared. "The way to deal with him is just to be as firm for the right as he is for the wrong."

As Nixon spoke, some members of the crowd — which included many school children — waved signs which read: "One Mr. K is enough — win with Nixon."

Nixon told an umbrella-bearing crowd, which filled the square in front of the Dayton, Ohio, courthouse, he believes his record as a member of the Eisenhower administration qualifies him for the nation's highest office.

"The Dayton crowd was estimated at 20,000," about the same as Kennedy drew at last week's appearance there from the same platform.

With the aid of President Eisenhower, Nixon will shoot the political works in New York next Tuesday.

Then he will be joined by Eisenhower, vice presidential nominee Henry Cabot Lodge and GOP Sens. Jacob M. Javits and Kenneth B. Keating in what the Republicans hope will be New York City's biggest ticker-tape reception.

Nixon will star that night in a television appearance. If all this fails to turn the tide that Nixon strategists admit privately is against them in the Empire State, they will try to duplicate Harry Truman's 1948 stunt of winning without New York's 45 electoral votes.

Nixon's associates believe they must take Ohio and its 25 electoral votes, California and Pennsylvania with 32 each, Illinois with 27, Indiana with 13 and possibly Minnesota with 11.

In this second line of effort to gain the winning margin of 269 electoral votes, Nixon's forces look on Ohio as one of the key areas they must carry.

They got both good and bad news on this endeavor as Nixon set out for a day of whistle-stopping from Democratic Dayton to the politically doubtful Columbus and

Injuries Fatal to Crossett Coach

CROSSETT, Ark. (AP)—Ball Burchfield, 30, track coach and assistant football coach at Crossett High School, died at a Shreveport, La., hospital Tuesday night of injuries suffered in a highway accident.

Burchfield's automobile went out of control and struck a tree about four miles north of Bastrop, La., on Oct. 15.

He was alone. He was an all-AFC quarterback at Arkansas A&M College at Monticello.

He coached for a time at Rayville, La., but returned to Crossett, his home town, about three years ago.

Survivors include his widow and three children, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Burchfield, all of Crossett.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Poll Tax Sales Hit a Record

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Poll tax sales are at a record high, with only three counties left to report. State Auditor Jimmie Jones said Tuesday a total of 494,677 poll taxes have been reported from 72 counties, 12,465 more than sold in those counties last year.

Still unreported are Pulaski County, which issued 81,184 poll tax receipts, highest in the state, last year; Garland County, which had 19,485 last year; and Lonoke County, which had 8,620 last year.

A night appearance in Democratic Toledo.

Nixon got one of the biggest ovations of the campaign by a cheer-led partisan audience packed to the rafters in Cincinnati's 17,000-seat Garden Auditorium Tuesday night. More thousands outside the hall practically mobbed him and Mrs. Nixon on their arrival.

Lodge introduced Nixon to the audience as "the best-equipped man in the nation to guide us as we build our strength to assure peace."

Afterward the two nominees met briefly and agreed that—as Herbert G. Klein, Nixon's press secretary put it—"The tide has turned their way." Klein called the Garden appearance "the biggest indoor meeting Nixon has had in the campaign."

Nixon and Lodge both took potshots at their Democratic opponents in Tuesday night's nationally televised appearance. Lodge said Nixon "has never drawn a line and told the Communists to come and get it on the other side of that line." This was a reference to what the Republicans say is Kennedy's stand on Quemoy and Matsu.

Nixon said that "one of the many differences between our ticket and that of our opponents introduced by my running mate is that I'm always proud to be any place in the United States."

This was an allusion to what Republicans said was Kennedy's failure introduced by my running mate Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, in campaigning outside the South.

A state wide prohibition law was passed in Arkansas in 1915. There are 19,113 acres in the Arkansas State Parks system.

Coffee, Chocolate, Filberts Combine To Make A Luscious Mocha Nut Pie

Pastry was born in Greece, according to legend, longer ago than anyone can guess. There the ancient pastry-cook first made honey cakes with primitive handmade utensils. Since those by-gone days, the imagination of pastry chefs has given us an infinite variety of delectable sweets. To show just how far the fine art of pastry-making has progressed, here is a particularly handsome party pie. It's Mocha Filbert Chiffon—a gourmet's delight. This fabulous pie is reason alone for dessert-and-coffee parties.

Just the right amount of coffee and chocolate give the light mocha filling a delicate, wonderful flavor. Chopped filberts are baked into the flaky crust, and also adorn the top of the pie, filling in the criss-cross design of whipped cream.

When you serve up this sweet beauty, complete the picture with demitasse cups, filled with rich, black coffee.

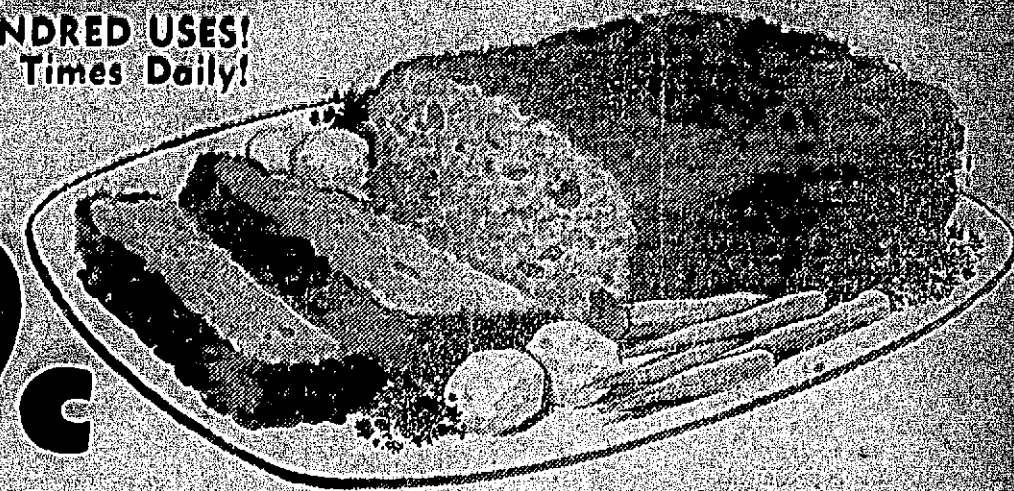

Mocha Filbert Chiffon Pie
Pastry for 1 crust $\frac{1}{4}$ cup strong hot coffee
2 eggs separated
1 cup whipping cream, divided
1 cup cold coffee
1 cup sugar, divided
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup chopped filberts, chopped

Line 9-inch pie pan with pastry; flute edge. Press $\frac{1}{2}$ cup chopped filberts into crust. Bake in hot oven, 450°, 10 to 12 minutes. Soften gelatin in cold coffee. Mix $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar, salt and chocolate with hot coffee; stir until chocolate melts. Beat egg yolks slightly. Stir a little of the hot mixture into egg yolks and then blend yolks into hot mixture in saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until it begins to boil. Remove from heat. Stir in softened gelatin until gelatin dissolves. Cool. When mixture is partially set, beat with rotary beater until smooth. Beat $\frac{1}{2}$ cup cream until stiff; add vanilla. Fold into gelatin mixture. Add cream of tartar to egg whites and beat until stiff. Add remaining $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar and continue beating until glossy. Fold into gelatin mixture. Place in refrigerator until almost firm. Pile into filbert pie shell. Whip remaining cream. Garnish pie with whipped cream and chopped toasted filberts.

Paolo found Colonel Harrington waiting for him in the lobby of the Hassler.

"I'd like to see Danesi," the Colonel said. "The jeep and driver are outside. If it's all right I'll go to Danesi's with you."

In the jeep Paolo asked Harrington about the insurance for his gens. "You know, after I got here I forgot all about contracts and insurance. Were my gens covered?"

"Certainly. It's a regulation order of General Nolan. All regular agents working in the danger zones and behind enemy lines. It's written right in the contract of agency. Haven't you ever seen it?"

"Probably — back in Sicily or in Africa. But I'd forgotten. Of course I didn't bring any contracts with me — Major Moskovitz and the security people wouldn't let me bring anything written except my phony Italian documents and I couldn't have asked these people to sign contracts. They'd have been insulted."

"Even the workman — What's his name?"

"Ciccio? He wouldn't have understood what it was, and if he had he wouldn't have signed it. But about the insurance — I'd like to have it for Ciccio's boy. For another, too — a student."

"Were they regular agents?"

"Regular enough to die," snapped Paolo angrily.

"They went to Luciano's flat and found him and Rossini waiting."

"I'd like to talk to you before you go, Count Danesi," said Harrington. "A few political questions our Italian Desk in Washington wanted to know about."

"That's all right," replied Luciano, "because I'm not going to Rossini's going; his son's out there; he wants to see him. It will take only about two hours to go and come back."

"Would you mind," asked Paolo, "if I take the jeep and driver first and run out to the farm where we have been staying. I'd like to bring Tonino and the radio in — and also Luciano's servant."

"Not at all," replied Harrington. "Well, I'll go then." Paolo nodded to the others and hurried out.

"Fine young officer — Mac-dougall," said Rossini. "We're all very fond of him."

"Yes. His father was a friend of my father," added Luciano. "Always very steady and level-headed — especially for a kid. He's only a youngster, after all."

"I rather guessed I had offended him last night. I didn't mean to. He's really done a fine job, thanks to you and your people."

"No — quite the other way around," said Luciano. "Without him we'd have been useless. But if you think he's done a fine job, Colonel — excuse my intruding in your affairs — why don't you tell him so?"

"Really, gentlemen, I have told him, and I've gone out of my way to be considerate to Lieutenant Macdougall. I shall send Washington a commendatory report on him and his mission here. But after all, I'm a professional Army officer — not the housemother in a boarding school. These youngsters should have had some tough military training before they are sent out — not a lot of cloak-and-dagger stuff."

"After a silence just too long to be comfortable, Harrington spoke again. "But before we talk politics I came here also to thank you, Conte Danesi, for the valuable information your outfit fed to us. In fact, I am authorized by General Farquhar of G-2, Fifteenth Army Group, to offer, as a sign of our gratitude — the Medal of Merit, to you — intended as an honor for your entire organization as well."

"I'm sorry, Colonel. I can't accept a decoration for myself. I've sat in relative safety through all these months — sending other people into danger. Some gave their lives."

"But if you'll let me nominate another member — someone who's been in grave danger over and over again, someone who's made painful sacrifices — I'd be wholeheartedly in favor of a decoration for him."

"Who is it?" asked the Colonel.

"Ciccio — Romolo Massimo — the stonemason we spoke of last night — the one Rossini's going to fetch in the jeep."

"I'll communicate with General Farquhar. I'm certain he'll agree. Just a formality."

Nixon Backer Hits Kennedy Cuba Stand

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arthur Gardner, former U.S. ambassador to Cuba, said today that proposals by Sen. John F. Kennedy for overthrowing the Fidel Castro regime "could easily result in war."

"Even if somehow war could be avoided over Cuba, incidents of a highly provoking nature would be multiplied and world tensions greatly increased," Gardner added in a statement.

Gardner urged that a fifth debate between Republican presidential candidate Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Kennedy, the Democratic nominee, be "limited to a discussion of Cuba."

"This subject is too difficult and too complex to be handled in the five or six minutes allotted to each of the issues in the debates so far," Gardner said.

Seven Bodies Taken From Windsor Store

By EVELYN AUGUST
WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — A gas-triggered explosion ripped through a crowded downtown department store Tuesday, leaving in walls shattering windows and hurling bodies into the street.

Seven bodies were recovered. Another person died in a hospital. Rescues crews worked through the night in near-freezing temperatures to free at least two more bodies which could be seen pinned beneath the rubble. Other reports said there were three or more buried.

At least 90 persons were treated for injuries. Heavy Bird, civil defense director for the area, said five store employees were unaccounted for.

Engineers Return at Two GE Plants

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The American Federation of Technical Engineers today returned to work at two General Electric plants after agreeing to a strike freeze.

Some 3,000 members of the International Union of Electrical Workers had refused to work on picket lines set up by Local 13 of AFTB.

IUE employees earlier had settled their own nation-wide three-week strike against GE.

A member of the AFTB Executive Board said the union had made "definite contractual wage gains" but had not reached any contract settlement with the company. He added that no time limit had been set on the strike.

"This fall Mexico will celebrate the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Mexican War of Independence," the 100th anniversary of the victory of Benito Juarez in the War of the Reform and the 50th anniversary of the Mexican Revolution.

"We decided to open the main (gas) line from the street," Halford said, "and all we got was air. All of a sudden the gas came through. I turned to leave the basement when it exploded."

Halford suffered burns on the face and hands and was reported in fair condition at a Windsor hospital.

Negro Racial Leader Must Serve Time

DECATUR, Ga. (AP) — Federal grand jurors in the federal court here today reported that an appeal hearing for a Negro leader sent to prison to serve four months for a traffic law violation.

Sheriff Bob Broom said state police were told by unidentified telephone callers that the court room would be blown up during efforts of Negro attorneys to file an appeal for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Judge Oscar Mitchell, upon receiving the report, halted the proceedings to ask the attorneys if they wished to proceed. They did, and the appeal hearing continued. After clearing out about 100 white and Negro spectators, the judge finally moved the hearing to another room as a precaution. Only attorneys and accredited newsmen were allowed to remain. King already had been whisked away early today to Reidsville Penitentiary to begin his sentence.

The four-month period of a one-year suspended sentence given King last month was revoked Tuesday on the ground he violated probation by taking part in recent Atlanta sit-in demonstrations.

The Negro minister, leader of the Montgomery, Ala., bus boycott, was denied bond by Judge Oscar Mitchell of Dekalb Criminal Court.

King, who moved to Georgia eight months ago, was one of 79 persons arrested during demonstrations last week in nearby Atlanta. He paid a $25 fine in September and received the 12-month suspended term for driving without a Georgia driver's license. Georgia sells 1- and 5-year driver's licenses which expire on April 1. King said at the time of his arrest he had a valid Alabama license.

While the other sit-in demonstrators were released on bond, King was held at the request of Dekalb County officials for violating the state antitrespass law while on probation. The law under which King and the others were charged makes it a misdemeanor to fail to leave private premises when requested to do so.

King's counsel argued the probation sentence was invalid since the law sets a limit of six months on such sentences. They also claimed the antitrespass law is unconstitutional.

D. L. Hollowell, head of King's five-man legal staff, also called officials of Rich's Department Store to testify that no formal accusation of violating the law had been made against King.

But Dekalb County Prosecutor Jack Smith said that no formal accusation was necessary to revoke the probation and he insisted that King violated the antitrespass law and thereby violated the terms of his probation.

Smith agreed that six months was the legal maximum for such probation sentences but demanded that part of the sentence not in excess of the legal maximum (four months) be served.

The prison sentence was called shocking by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, who was a spectator in the crowded courtroom.

STOCKHOLM (AP) — A Swedish air force jet crashed into a farmhouse near the central Swedish village of Kolsva today, killing a 6-year-old child and six other persons sitting at a table. The plane set the building afire. The pilot parachuted to safety.

Children And Pets Are Welcome

In today's space-hungry homes where the living room often doubles as a youngsters' playroom, ingenious homemakers depend on washable slipcovers for charming and flexible decorative effects. Sets of winter and summer slipcovers permit a welcome change of color scheme and prove practical where there are children and pets to spill things and track dirt. Soiled slipcovers are tossed into an automatic washer along with detergent and dry chlorine bleach. This new approach to bleaching eliminates the risk of damaging spills or overexposure of bleach.

Fabric safe dry chlorine bleach has given budget-wise homemakers incentive to make slipcovers of inexpensive heavy-duty bleached cotton like Osnaberg, the "feed bag" fabric, which bleaches white and shrinks to a linen-like texture. Trimmed in bright colored cording, Osnaberg slipcovers are equally at home in a city apartment or country home.

First step in making these easy-care slipcovers calls for pre-shrinking and pre-bleaching the fabric. For easy handling, cut the amount of fabric needed for one slipcover at a time allowing about 10 per cent extra for shrinkage. Dissolve dry chlorine bleach in hot water in the washing machine before adding the fabric. Agitation helps insure even bleaching. After the fabric dries, press with an iron, make the snug-fitting slipcovers easy to remove.

The same method of pre-shrinking and pre-bleaching must be used by homemakers for curtains. They've gained confidence in easy-to-handle, lightweight packages. Even if the bleach spills, there's no danger of spotting fabric, kitchen floor or equipment.

Most Wanted Man Sought in State

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — One of the FBI's 10 most wanted men may be in Arkansas.

J. Casper, special agent in charge of the Little Rock FBI office, said Tuesday that Robert William Schultz Jr., 38, is known to have been in the state.

Casper said Schultz, an escapee from the federal correctional institution at Sandstone, Minn., is believed traveling with Lloyd George Depee, 40, who is wanted by the FBI for violating terms of his release from Sandstone.

Casper said both men are armed and dangerous.

French Poet Nobel Prize Winner

By CARL O. BOLANG
STOCKHOLM (AP) — Saint-John Perse, a French poet who once ranked high in his country's diplomatic corps, was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature today.

Now 73, he fled France in 1940 after quarreling with pro-Fascist elements in France. He settled in the United States and became a consultant to the Library of Congress in Washington, where he now lives.

Like much modern poets, his work is enigmatic and contains many levels of meaning difficult to plumb. Outside of France, his best known work is Anabase, a long poem translated into English by T. S. Eliot, another Nobel laureate.

The title is taken from the ancient Greek historian Xenophon's Anabasis, the story of an epic march. One French critic described Perse's poem as "a series of images of migration of conquest of vast spaces in Asiatic wastes, of destruction and foundation of cities and civilizations."

The imagery for the poem published in 1924, came from a trip Perse took through the Gobi Desert of China. He also traveled in the South Seas, and his poetry is colored by memories of this and the tropical lushness of his early life on the French island of Guadeloupe in the West Indies.

During the 1930s, Perse worked on his poetry at night and in secret. Few of his associates at the French Foreign Office knew of it.

In 1942, he broke an 18 year publishing silence when the Chicago magazine Poetry published his Exile, a tribute to the fighters of the French World War II resistance.

Perse had been mentioned for the Nobel award as long ago as 1956. In choosing him for the $43,027 prize, the 18-member Swedish Academy of Letters cited "the soaring flight and provocative imagery of his poetry, which in a visionary fashion reflects the conditions of our time."

U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld, a member of the Swedish academy and a student of modern poetry, reportedly suggested Perse for the award. Hammarskjöld himself was not present for the balloting today.

Says Johnson and Kennedy Disagree

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republicans said today that John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson disagreed on the average, on one out of every four or five votes during their years together in Congress.

Altogether, said the Republican National Committee's research division, the two Democratic candidates clashed on 264 roll calls in the 10 years they served together in the House and Senate.

In a breakdown of the voting records, the committee said they disagreed mostly on farm policy, taxes and civil rights.

"Foreign aid foreign policy, and defense have also come in for a large share of disagreement. So have labor issues, public works, housing and tidelands oil," the release said.

British Seek to Free Money

LONDON (AP) — The Foreign Office announced today the British Embassy in Havana is negotiating for the release of British funds caught up in Fidel Castro's nationalization orders.

A Foreign Office spokesman gave this explanation to a news conference:

Various Cuban companies nationalized recently by the Castro government served as local agents for about 35 British insurance concerns.

As agents, these Cuban firms held some funds on behalf of the British companies and these funds were caught up in the nationalization.

An estimate two years ago placed the amount of such British funds in Cuba at that time at $4 million. There has been no recent check, but presumably the amount involved is near that total.

The spokesman said "we have no reason to believe that these British funds were deliberately seized by the Cuban authorities."

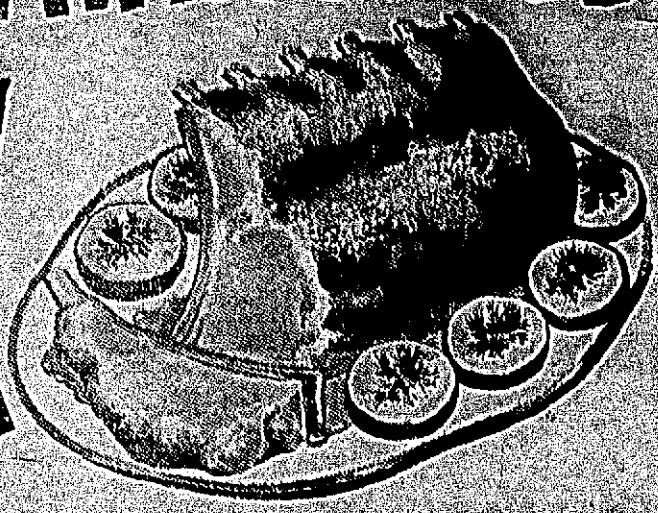

Many in Texas Town Flee Floods

KENNEDY, Tex. (AP) — Nearly 800 persons were driven from their homes by flash floods in this area of south-central Texas Tuesday night after an eight inch downpour.

Hardest hit were Kennedy and nearby Pettus. The area is 70 miles southeast of San Antonio. At least two persons died. Mrs. John Berris, 48 of Kennedy and Alvin Rose, about 70, of Pawnee, drowned when a car was swept from a flooded highway. Their bodies were recovered.

Chuck Martin of radio station KAML said at least 600 Kennedy residents were forced from their homes. They were given temporary shelter and food in churches.
